

Construction Angels Educational Fund

SUBMISSION DEADLINE: JULY 15, 2022

*Notifications will be by or before July 29th

Purpose

Construction Angels, Inc. (CA) is a 501(c)3 Non-Profit charity that provides immediate financial assistance and grief counseling to the children and spouse left behind when a construction worker has a fatality on the jobsite. Construction Angels, Inc. is also accepting applications for the Construction Angels Educational Fund, which provides financial assistance to construction organizations and continuing education institutions within the construction industry. Funds are awarded annually. Applications are available for the 2022 school term of enrollment.

Eligibility

Construction Angels Educational Fund is available within states Construction Angels currently operates that are educating students in construction. Organization, associations, institutions or continuing education programs are eligible to apply. The CAE Fund is an CA Educational Fund, much like a scholarship, to provide funding to institutions of students in order to attract and retain workers within the construction industry. (Example: Construction Career Days (CCD) provide financial aid programs for students learning about careers and working in the industry while in high school.

Educational Institution Requirements

The applicant must use the funding award to finance the education needs and requirements of the students attending the institution of learning in the construction industry. This could include any public or private: (a) four-year accredited college or university; (b) two-year accredited college; or (c) vocational technical college or construction training institution. Applicants can re-apply each year within the guidelines of construction education.

Award Disbursement

Funding will be awarded once a year and distributed by July 29th. Award money will be deposited by the Construction Angels charity directly to the organization or continuing education institutions that is awarded. The funds will go directly to organization or continuing education institution. It is up to the discretion of the organizations and continuing education institutions based on the application presented. CA Education Funds awards are not transferable to another individual or institution and are forfeited by the recipient where the upon failure to utilize the funds as indicated by the application.