

MISSION

Our MISSION is to provide immediate financial assistance and grief counseling to the children and spouse left behind when a construction worker has a fatality on the job site. We offer construction scholarship opportunities to qualified applicants, and additional scholarships to surviving children of a fallen worker.

VISION

Our VISION is to be the immediate source of support to construction families when the unthinkable happens. We believe in the importance of promoting family values, job site safety awareness, continued education and the constant support of 'ONE OF OUR OWN'!

OUR TEAM

Construction Angels as a 501(C)3 Non-Profit Organization, operated by a Volunteer Board of Directors who provide planning and management of the Organization. Their goal is to create awareness within the industry and bring this Organization forward with trust and understanding to families in need.

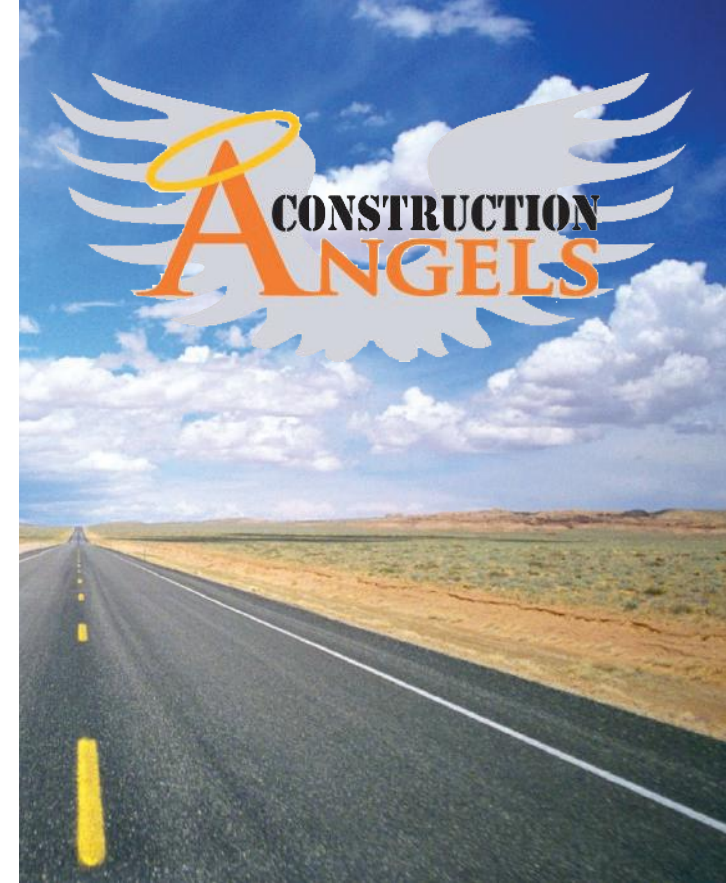

Each member of the Board of Directors and Committee Members are connected to the construction industry professionally. The Board of Directors and Committee Members donate their time and provide their knowledge and services to benefit families.

“Construction Angels respond to Construction families in need of assistance when a disaster happens”

QUALIFYING

Qualifying incidents shall be defined as a construction accident that resulted in death of the worker on the job site of the state where the incident occurred.

Financial assistance shall be in the form of providing funds for surviving children and/or surviving spouse.

In addition, the Organization will be a conduit to information and family member grief counseling services.

Who Qualifies for Assistance?

An individual whose family resides in the United States and loses their life on a jobsite during the course and scope of employment.

How to Request Assistance?

Please visit www.ConstructionAngels.us. Under ‘Contact Us’, choose ‘Aid to Family/Assistance Request Form’. Complete the online questions. Process takes approximately 5 minutes. We will contact the Employer/Family directly.

ABOUT US

Construction Angels is an approved IRS 501-(c)(3) Non-Profit Public Charity. That exemption allows Construction Angels to collect funds and provide the donor with a valid tax deduction and will allow it to be exempt from certain state and federal taxes.

BASIC NEEDS

Construction Angels aids families in need of financial assistance when a construction employee has lost his/her life in an on-the-job accident. Many times when a household suffers a loss, there is a little to no short-term funds available to the family to accommodate those left behind. CA’s main objective is to help families pick up the pieces. Our charity’s services are designed to provide an integrated approach to support quality of life for family members whose household suffered the misfortune of a loss.
