

Construction Angels Scholarship Fund

Construction Angels, Inc. (CA) is a 501(c)3 Non-Profit charity that provides immediate financial assistance and grief counseling to the children and spouse left behind when a construction worker is involved in an accidental work-related fatality. We offer construction scholarship opportunities to qualified applicants and additional scholarships to surviving children of a fallen worker.

SUBMISSION DEADLINE: JULY 3, 2026

*Notifications will be by or before July 24th

2 TYPES OF STUDENT SCHOLARSHIPS:

- 1. Children who have lost a parent due to a construction-related fatality can apply for any career.
- 2. Students who are seeking to further their education in the construction industry.

Purpose

The Construction Angels Scholarship Fund is accepting applications for the following:

1. Children who have lost a parent due to a construction-related fatality can pursue post-high school education in any industry of their choice.
2. Students seeking to further their education in the construction industry.

Scholarships are awarded annually. The 'Construction Angels Scholarship Fund' program was launched in August 2018 through the Construction Angels charity.

Eligibility

Eligibility of Applicants for the Construction Angels Scholarship Fund requires applicants to complete the application within the States where Construction Angels operates (listed in Appendix A on Page 6) who are furthering their education in construction, or have lost their parent due to a construction-related fatality. An Applicant who has lost a parent due to a construction-related accident is able to apply to any continuing education institution for financial aid.

Educational Institution Requirements

1. An Applicant who has lost a parent due to a construction job site-related accident must use the scholarship award to attend a post-secondary institution of learning that requires a high school diploma or a Graduate Equivalent Degree (G.E.D.) for admission. Applicants can reapply each year during their post-secondary institution of learning in any education until completion.
2. An Applicant who is furthering their education in the construction industry must use the scholarship award to attend a post-secondary institution which requires a high school diploma or a Graduate Equivalent Degree (G.E.D.) for admission. This could include any public or private: (a) four-year accredited college or university; (b) two-year accredited college; or (c) vocational technical college or construction training institution. Applicants can reapply each year during their post-secondary institution of learning within the guidelines of construction education until completion.

Amount of Scholarship

The Committee will award the same dollar value scholarship to each awarded applicant based on proceeds from fundraisers each year in the designated states.

Scholarship Award Disbursement

The remaining scholarship award year is defined as September 1st through July 31st of the following year. Scholarship award money will be directly deposited by the Construction Angels charity with the university, college, or institution of higher learning to which the student is admitted, accepted, and will attend. The award money is credited to an account that is established in the individual's name at the school. It can be drawn by the recipient for: (a) fees or charges required for tuition; (b) expenses for text books, course work, lab fees and other materials as required by a course instructor (e.g., art/drawing supplies, glass slides, etc.) for required course assignments or projects; and (c) fees or charges for room and board while attending school. Scholarship awards are not transferable to another individual or institution. They are forfeited by the recipient upon withdrawal from the institution where the scholarship award was disbursed by Construction Angels Scholarship Fund, or upon failure to meet the institution's appropriate standards of academic achievement, conduct, or character.
