

RE-APPLYING STUDENTS ONLY

PREVIOUSLY AWARDED SCHOLARSHIP RECIPIENT APPLICATION

Construction Angels, Inc. (CA) is a 501(c)3 Non-Profit charity that provides immediate financial assistance and grief counseling to the children and spouse left behind when a construction worker is involved in an accidental work-related fatality. We offer construction scholarship opportunities to qualified applicants and additional scholarships to surviving children/spouses of a fallen worker.

This application is ONLY for students who have previously been awarded a Construction Angels Scholarship and are looking for an additional scholarship to continue their education. **

SUBMISSION DEADLINE: JULY 3, 2026

*Notifications will be by or before July 24th

2 TYPES OF STUDENT SCHOLARSHIPS:

- 1. Children/Spouses who have lost a parent/spouse due to a construction-related fatality can apply for any career.
- 2. Students who are seeking to further their education in the construction industry.

Purpose

The Construction Angels Scholarship Fund is accepting applications for the following:

1. Children/Spouses who have lost a parent/spouse to a construction-related fatality can pursue post-high school education in any industry of their choice.
2. Students seeking to further their education in the construction industry.

Scholarships are awarded annually. The 'Construction Angels Scholarship Fund' program was launched in August 2018 through the Construction Angels charity.

Eligibility

Eligibility of Applicants for the Construction Angels Scholarship Fund requires applicants to complete the application who are furthering their education in construction, or have lost their parent/spouse due to a construction-related fatality. An Applicant who has lost a parent/spouse due to a construction-related accident may apply to any continuing education institution for financial aid.

Educational Institution Requirements

1. An Applicant who has lost a parent/spouse due to a construction job site-related accident must use the scholarship award to attend a post-secondary institution of learning that requires a high school diploma or a Graduate Equivalent Degree (G.E.D.) for admission. Applicants can REAPPLY each year during their post-secondary institution of learning in any education until completion.
2. An Applicant who is furthering their education in the construction industry must use the scholarship award to attend a post-secondary institution that requires a high school diploma or a Graduate

Equivalent Degree (G.E.D.) for admission. This could include any public or private: (a) four-year accredited college or university; (b) two-year accredited college; or (c) vocational technical college or construction training institution. Applicants can REAPPLY each year during their post-secondary institution of learning within the guidelines of construction education until completion.

Amount of Scholarship

The Committee will award scholarships to each awarded applicant based on proceeds from fundraisers each year, so the values can vary from year to year.

Scholarship Award Disbursement

The remaining scholarship award year is defined as September 1st through July 31st of the following year. Scholarship award money will be directly deposited by the Construction Angels charity with the university, college, or institution of higher learning to which the student is admitted, accepted, and will attend. The award money is credited to an account that is established in the individual's name at the school. It can be drawn by the recipient for: (a) fees or charges required for tuition; (b) expenses for text books, course work, lab fees and other materials as required by a course instructor (e.g., art/drawing supplies, glass slides, etc.) for required course assignments or projects; and (c) fees or charges for room and board while attending school. Scholarship awards are not transferable to another individual or institution. They are forfeited by the recipient upon withdrawal from the institution where the scholarship award was disbursed by Construction Angels Scholarship Fund, or upon failure to meet the institution's appropriate standards of academic achievement, conduct, or character.
